

EXPERIENCE SHARING: INTERNATIONAL CREDIT MOBILITY

SANDRA MELL

HEAD OF INTERNATIONAL OFFICE

20.10.2021

the teacher has enough time.

FAST FACTS:

- 1 of 6 public universities in Estonia
- New study building in central Tallinn
- 7 international English MA programmes
- Active member in regional networks at Nordic-Baltic level
- European Universities Transform4Europe

FAST FACTS:

- ERASMUS programme since 1999
- 70% of our 2018 alumni = ERASMUS
- balanced in- and outgoing ERASMUS
- KA 103 budgets near 1 000 000 EUR
- KA 107 budgets near 100 000 EUR

REASONS FOR KA 107

- high interest in cooperation beyond Europe within EKA
- ERASMUS EMAIL III as the starting point in 2013
- grant scheme is reasonable, (paperwork is not)

JOY:

- high satisfaction rate
- global networking
- possibility to grant life-changing experiences
- to know that the projects will bring change at institutional level
- curiosity of participants - teachers and students alike

AGONY:

- application process
- planning
- partner agreements
- many partners in one country
- digital barriers
- cultural barriers
- practical matters
- turbulent world
- is it green?
- pros and cons?

PROCESS:

BEFORE FUNDING:

- call within EKA
- meetings / sharing information
- discussions with partners
- signing agreements
- inner application form
- writing the application
- submit application

PROCESS:

AFTER FUNDING:

- distribution of information and funding
- call for participants in partner units and at EKA
- things that matter happen
- planning next project
- report to NA and partners
- distribution of results
- new partners, new agreements

WHY MAKE MORE IMAGES?

MARGE MONKO

Some of EKA's current academic staff. Rich in ERASMUS experience

KA 107+ NORD+

Teaming up with Kolding School of Design and KNUST in Ghana, for workshop Color & Light. February 2020

THANK YOU!